

Dr. Perdue performs pre-surgical psychological clearance evaluations for individuals considering bariatric surgery and is also available to provide individual counseling with a focus on health and wellness. She is a licensed psychologist in New Jersey and earned her doctorate in Counseling Psychology from Florida State University.