

Meagan is a registered dietitian who brings a lot of energy and enthusiasm. She is very devoted to helping her clients achieve their goals and make lasting changes in their lives. She received her bachelors degree from Virginia Tech in Human Nutrition, Foods and Exercise and completed her dietetic internship at Montclair State University. In her personal time, Meagan enjoys exercising and living the healthy lifestyle that she teaches to her clients.